Mark Ronchetti Endorsed by Albuquerque Police Officers' Association

Ronchetti Wins Endorsement of Albuquerque Police

Albuquerque, NM – Albuquerque Police Officers' Association, representing over 900 police officers, has endorsed Mark Ronchetti for election to the United States Senate from New Mexico.

“Our endorsement is based on your continued support for law enforcement and public safety as a whole,” said Shaun Willoughby, president of Albuquerque Police Officers' Association. “Mark's ability to understand the needs of public safety at the local level makes us believe that Mark is the best candidate to expand his support for law enforcement on the national level.”

Mark Ronchetti was proud to accept the endorsement from the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association. Violent crime has been on the rise in New Mexico and Mark wants to put public safety first.

“Finding ways to solve the crime issues our state faces has been a central part of our campaign, and I'm deeply honored the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association has endorsed me,” said Mark Ronchetti. “For too long, our leaders have chosen to ignore the real crime issues our cities face. I will be a staunch advocate for law enforcement and the safety of all New Mexican families.”
