

Republican Party of New Mexico Chairman Ryan Cangioli Demands New Mexico TV Stations Take Down False Michelle Lujan Grisham Ad

ALBUQUERQUE – Republican Party of New Mexico Chairman Ryan Cangioli sent a letter to New Mexico TV stations today, demanding that they take down a false and deceptive advertisement from Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michelle Lujan Grisham.

According to a recent Associated Press report, Lujan Grisham’s television ad, titled “Capital,” makes verifiably false and misleading statements about her record on opioids.

You can read the letter here

“Michelle Lujan Grisham’s ad makes blatantly false claims about her record on opioids,” said Ryan Cangioli, chairman of the Republican Party of New Mexico. “While New Mexico families suffer from the scourge of the opioid crisis, Lujan Grisham is deceiving voters about her appalling record on opioids. New Mexicans deserve a governor who will lead on the opioid crisis – not a cynical politician who plays deceptive political games with this vitally important issue.”

###