

RPNM Statement on Release of More Misleading Ads from Xochitl Torres Small

Albuquerque, NM — Today, the Republican Party of New Mexico released the following statement in response to yet another despicable and misleading ad from Xochitl Torres Small:

“Voters aren’t surprised that Xochitl Torres Small is using the same playbook as Senate Democrats by attempting to impugn Yvette Herrell’s good character and reputation,” said Ryan Cangioli, chairman of the Republican Party of New Mexico. “Now, she is asking for voters across the 2nd District to trust the word of a former disgraced mayor of Alamogordo who left town under the cover of darkness and now lives out of the district. If there is one thing that voters throughout the 2nd district can agree on, it is that they are sick and tired of the desperate attempts of the radical left to influence their vote and choice on who would better represent them in Washington D.C.”
