

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode, Steve talks about:

- A report citing Joe Biden's "magical" victory.
- How some contested races will be easier to reach the Supreme Court.
- Gov. Lujan's Grisham's 3-tier COVID-19 plan.
- How the governor has mismanaged her handling of the pandemic.
- How the Governor's Office is ready to blame the GOP for future virus plan failures.
- What RPNM is doing to address voting irregularities.

Steve also speaks with House Minority Leader Jim Townsend about:

- The $330 million pandemic relief package passed by the Legislature.
- The economic pain New Mexicans are facing.
- This year's legislative election results and the high quality of Republican candidates.
- The diversity of Republican candidates this election year.

Steve also speaks with newly-elected Senate Minority Leader Greg Baca about:

- Why he went into politics.
- A sudden shift of votes in his own election.
- The New Mexico Senate race results.
- The legislature's passage of the pandemic relief package.