

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- President Biden's blitz of executive orders and how they will hurt our state and nation.
- The executive actions that impact the oil and gas industry—the economic damage and job losses.
- The new political makeup of our federal government.
- Getting back into the WHO.
- The ironic reopening of the economy now that Biden's in office.
- How New Mexico has failed our students.

Steve also talks with NM House Minority Whip Rod Montoya about:

- How the Democrats in the Roundhouse try to dominate the agenda.
- The unnecessary security surrounding the Capitol.
- How Democrats are keeping the public out of the governmental process.
- How the pandemic has shut down 100,00 plus jobs in New Mexico.
- How the governor's policies have killed New Mexico businesses.
- The progressive legislative agenda, including late-term abortion, recreational pot and assisted suicide.
- How Gov. Lujan Grisham is anti-business and pro-attorney.
