

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The reopening of schools, the lack of science involved in the Governor's decision and the power of teachers unions.
- The impact of online schooling on students.
- Border security in the Biden Administration.
- Sex allegations swirling around NY Gov. Cuomo, Democrats calling for his resignation and calls for his impeachment.

Steve then speaks with former state lawmaker Sharon Clahchischilliage of the Navajo Nation about the Navajo community and its economic conditions, the threat of the oil and gas industry under Deb Haaland and the Congresswoman's record.

Steve also talks about RPNM's Operation Freedom event in Amarillo, TX where South Dakota Gov. Kristi Noem and Ohio Rep. Jim Jordan will be featured speakers.
