

Airport Advisory Board Seeks Applicants

The Santa Fe Regional Airport Advisory Board (AAB) is a seven-member citizen board that informs and makes recommendations to the Governing Body of the City of Santa Fe on the development of the airport for short- and long-term planning goals as they relate to the airport master plan.

The Board is currently seeking letters of interest from members of the public who are interested in filling a vacancy on the board. Applicants must reside in the County of Santa Fe.

The AAB meets at 4 p.m. on the second Thursday of every month.

Interested applicants may submit a letter of interest and a resume to:
Bobbi Huseman (505) 955-2903; bjhuseman@santafenm.gov

Deadline to apply: April 28, 2021
