

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The success of "Operation Freedom."
- The powerful speeches of Gov. Kristi Noem, U.S. Rep. Jim Jordan and others at the convention.
- The main messages that resonated at the event and the promise of the New Republican Party.
- The momentum in the CD-1 race and the importance of electing Mark Moores to Congress.

Host Derek Underhill then interviews Moores, who talks about the crime problem, economic development and the radical positions of his opponent, including her support to defund police, close prisons, and eliminate ICE and the DEA. Mark also discusses his deep roots in New Mexico and his vast understanding of the serious issues. Mark also addresses immigration, sanctuary cities and his conservative values. He also talks about how he can work across the aisle.
