

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The wildfires in the West.
- Rising gas prices.
- Overall inflation due to the Biden Administration's policies.
- The plunging poll numbers for the President.
- How crime has gotten out of control nationwide.
- The mass migration of people leaving blue states.

Host Derek Underhill interviews New Mexico House Republican Leader Jim Townsend about the Governor and the disbursement of $1.75 billion in federal COVID relief funds. Jim also addresses the recent resignation of House Majority Leader Sheryl Williams Stapleton amid a state corruption investigation.

Derek also interviews Ronnie Lucero, the Chairman of the Republican National Hispanic Assembly of New Mexico. He talks about the organization's mission and why it's important to grow the conservative movement.
