

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The state's forced resignation of a GOP County Chair.
- The need for local control for school boards.
- How the state is exceeding its authority by suspending Floyd, NM's Board.
- How Gov. Lujan Grisham is neglecting education in the state.
- The latest national jobs report.
- The ongoing inflation problem.
- Why more jobs are being outsourced.
- The national infrastructure bill and the problems with our national trade policies.
- How more COVID-infected people are crossing the border into the state and the spike in COVID cases here.
- The frustration of the COVID lockdowns.
- The resignation of NM's House Majority Leader amid a corruption investigation.

Host Derek Underhill also speaks with Rep. Yvette Herrell about the crisis at the border.