

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The candidacy of Republican Eddy Aragon for Albuquerque mayor.
- President Biden's vaccination mandate.
- The importance of personal freedoms.
- The impact of New Mexico's health mandates.
- The shortage of NM health care professionals.
- The grounding of Virgin Galactic.
- California's recall vote of its governor.
- The "harmful language" being labeled for U.S. documents.
- The ongoing southern border crisis.
- Food shortages and national inflation.
- What happens in Afghanistan now, efforts to get more Americans out and the dangers of military hardware in the hands of the Taliban.

And host Derek Underhill speaks with Rep. Yvette Herrell about her recent tour at Holloman AFB where thousands of Afghan refugees are being housed.
