

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve presents an eye-opening dramatization about the origin and handling of COVID. He also discusses a trip taken by Gov. Lujan Grisham when she was in Congress, the Governor becoming a substitute teacher, how Democrats have ruined our education system, how Republicans would improve education and the challenges of ensuring election integrity. Steve also talks to host Bob Clark on KKOB radio about RPNM's lawsuit against the newly drawn Congressional redistricting maps.
