Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

Steve Pearce

Danielle will be missed this week, but Steve and Derek dive straight into the captivating headlines surrounding New Mexico.

- State Rep. Alan Martinez (R-Sandoval) joins the show to talk about what to expect if Gov. Lujan Grisham calls a special session.
- Then Carla Sonntag of the organization Better Together New Mexico talks about how you can reverse some bad NM laws for parents and children by putting them on the ballot for a vote by the people.
- Steve calls out Biden for constantly making jokes about minorities that would get a Republican cancelled. Biden is under fire by Christians after he declares Easter Sunday Transgender Visibility Day. Steve talks about why it matters.
- Former Democratic State Rep. Sheryl Stapleton has been indicted on 35 criminal counts and a former Democratic Lt Governor used her influence to get the Governor to take a new park away from children, and what does all this mean for the corruption enabled by one-party-Democratic-rule in NM?
- Steve calls out the lie which Democrats perpetuate that Republicans want to cut social security and Medicare and sets the record straight.
- Then they hit on one issue that's not often discussed, and that is resources designated for low-income U.S. citizens being depleted and exploited by illegal immigrants.
