“Veterans should not ignore their VA or state benefits needs during the COVID-19 pandemic,” said DVS Secretary-Designate Sonya L. Smith. “ Veterans Service Officers can help you with filing processes for state and federal benefits, which can be complicated. We can answer questions about the state’s COVID-19 vaccine enrollment program. And if you need help with any other issues, you don’t have to face any crisis alone--we are here for you.”

Veterans can also choose to seek assistance with other DVS veterans service officers anytime by phone or email via the contact information below:
