

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The late Rush Limbaugh and meeting the radio icon.
- A dying woman's tough choice to choose life over death.
- Texas's power situation and the problems posed by renewable energy.

Steve also speaks with Stephanie Kennedy, RPNM's first African American statewide officer. Stephanie discusses her conservatism, values and the importance and meaning of Black History Month. She also reads a special message from RNC Chair Ronna McDaniel. Steve also talks about the deep ties between African Americans and the Republican Party.
