TOMORROW: Governor, state officials to give COVID-19 update

SANTA FE – Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham and state officials will host a fully remote news conference tomorrow afternoon to provide an update on COVID-19 in New Mexico.

WHAT: Remote news conference with state officials
WHEN: Thursday, February 25, 3:30 P.M.

Please note: The governor is scheduled to take part in a remote conference with President Joe Biden as part of the National Governors Association Winter Meeting prior to tomorrow's press conference, which may slightly affect the start time. We will aim to begin the press conference as close to 3:30 P.M. as possible, but it may be slightly delayed pending the timing of that conference.

The news conference will be streamed live on the governor's Facebook page.

Members of the media will be able to participate remotely. If you would like the opportunity to ask questions, please RSVP to nora.sackett@state.nm.us with your name and media affiliation and "RSVP" in the subject or body of the email. After your RSVP is received, you will receive more information about how to participate.
