New Mexico state officials provide an one-year anniversary COVID-19 update

SANTA FE – Cabinet Secretaries from the New Mexico Department of Health, Human Services Department, Children, Youth & Families Department, and the Aging & Long-Term Services Department will host a conversational webinar marking the one year anniversary since the first COVID-19 cases were confirmed in New Mexico. The secretaries will take questions from the media Thursday, March 11, at 3 p.m.

WHAT: One-year anniversary COVID-19 update with Q & A

WHEN: Thursday, March 11, at 3 p.m. MST

The news conference will be streamed live on the New Mexico Human Services Department's Facebook page.

The news conference will also be streamed with Spanish language interpreter on Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham's YouTube page.

Following the presentation, members of the media will be able to participate remotely. If you're a member of the media and would like the opportunity to ask questions, please RSVP to jodi.mcginis-porter@state.nm.us with your name and media affiliation. After your RSVP is received, you will receive more information about how to participate. We will attempt to unmute the media individually for your questions. However, please be prepared to type your questions in the chat, in the event there are unexpected technical difficulties.
