NEW MEXICO MILITARY MUSEUM NOW RE-OPENED Museum to host limited schedule

Santa Fe, N.M. – The New Mexico Military Museum is now re-opened to the public.

We are committed to creating a safe environment for our visitors as well as our employees. We will be limiting our schedule to allow for a thorough cleaning of the gallery as well as common spaces. The museum will be open Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 10:00am to 3:00pm. We will also be implementing safe practices to reduce transmission. Face coverings, social distancing, as well as proper hygiene will be enforced for museum employees as well as visitors.

Our new exhibit, New Mexico's Civil War, will be open as well. This exhibit is an interactive display that introduces the viewer to major players, locations, and events of the Civil War in the New Mexico Territory. It is our hope that a future grand opening with speakers and programming will take place as restrictions continue to ease and our COVID cases decline.
