

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The Governor's sex harassment settlement.
- The monopolies of social media organizations.
- The Biden Administration's relations with China.
- How Republican states are doing better opening up amid COVID-19.
- The current propaganda against Donald Trump.

- Steve also speaks to State Sen. Crystal Diamond about her first legislative session and her committee assignments. Diamond talks about the challenges fighting bills on abortion, assisted suicide and dealing with anti-business legislation. She also discusses the many divides in the Roundhouse, the work needed to make real progress in New Mexico and the importance of communicating with constituents.
