

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- RPNM's "Operation Freedom" and the upcoming highlights of the May convention.
- Why RPNM is holding the big 3-day event in Amarillo, TX.
- How the Republican Party of New Mexico is being forced to have this convention out of state.
- Why Republican states are doing better in jobs, the economy and education by staying open during the pandemic.
- Arizona's audit of the 2020 election.
- How the GOP is fighting to seek election integrity.
- The FBI findings on the Congressional baseball shooting.

- Steve also interviews freshman NM State Representative Joshua Hernandez who talks about his first year in the legislature and his committees. Joshua also discusses our state budget and talks about charter schools and the education challenges facing the state. Joshua also reveals a highlight for him during his first session.
