FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

After 40 Years, Weems is Opening a NEW Gallery Weems Gallery & Framing MOVES Gallery to New Location

Weems Gallery & Framing, voted Albuquerque Journal's Best Art Gallery in 2020 AND ABQ The Magazine's Best Art Gallery for the 14th year in a row, is moving to a brand new gallery! Weems will be closed Monday, April 5th to move and will reopen in the new gallery Saturday, April 10th from 10am to 5pm.

New owner, Sheila McVeigh, said she is "excited to showcase the hundreds of New Mexico artists that Weems represents in a new gallery that I've dreamed about for years!"

The new location, 5935 Wyoming Blvd NE, is a 6,000 square foot space that is being transformed into a new gallery and frame shop; and is located just north of Home Goods and Whole Foods, at the intersection of Wyoming and Academy.

Weems Gallery has been an Albuquerque favorite for original New Mexico art and one of a kind gifts and art pieces like jewelry, pottery, and New Mexico Christmas ornaments for over 40 years. The new owner, Sheila McVeigh, plans to continue to showcase New Mexico art from hundreds of local artists in the new gallery.

Sheila McVeigh, the new owner of Weems Gallery said "Weems Gallery & Framing has survived the worst of COVID and now we will move to a fresh new space, with COVID safe standards, so people can get out and see what makes them happy- ART!"

Weems Gallery & Framing will be OPEN in the new gallery Saturday, April 10th, 10am to 5pm and will host a Grand Opening in the near future. We look forward to seeing you there!
