

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The Governor's reelection bid and her insulting remarks to protesters at an event.
- How the Governor is avoiding the media more and more.
- How the state remains at the bottom in education, employment and opportunity and how scandals, mismanagement and hypocrisy are dominating her administration.
- The Governor's vaccination lottery, the political decision to make all counties turquoise, her questionable policies that have cost jobs and led to a collapsed economy and how small communities have suffered under the Governor's watch.
- New Mexico's ongoing restrictive COVID orders and RPNM's Operation Freedom.
- A California federal judge's ruling overturning an assault weapons ban.
- The upcoming G-7 Summit.
- Rising inflation under the Biden administration.
- The Texas "heartbeat bill."
