Senate Republicans Leaders Respond to Resignation of Sheryl Williams Stapleton

SANTA FE – In response to media reports that the House Democratic Leader, Sheryl Williams Stapleton, has resigned, Senate Republican leaders today released the following statement:

“The evidence leveled against the former House Democratic Leader is damning and will further erode the public’s trust in our state government. New Mexico citizens deserve a full and extensive investigation into the allegations brought against Representative Stapleton.”

“Corruption by public officials has long plagued our state and we must send a message that no person, regardless of title or status, is above the law.”

Senate Republican Leader, Senator Greg Baca (District 29-Bernalillo and Valencia)
Senate Republican Whip, Senator Craig Brandt (District 40-Sandoval)
Senate Republican Caucus Chair, Senator Mark Moores (District 21-Bernalillo)
