

Real Issues. Real People. Real New Mexico.

In this week's episode of Inside New Mexico, Steve talks about:

- The recall vote of California's governor.
- The importance of Hispanic Heritage Month and how more Hispanic citizens are aligning with conservative values.
- The Biden Administration's deadly drone strike.
- The ongoing crisis at the southern border.
- How the U.S. has offended France.
- The dangers of rising inflation and the weakening jobs market.
- Rising taxes under the Biden Administration.
- The latest political polls and the 2022 elections.

And host Derek Underhill interviews Republican Albuquerque mayoral candidate Eddy Aragon. Aragon addresses crime, commerce, city morale, homelessness, mass transit, COVID, corruption and Albuquerque's proposed soccer stadium.
