House GOP response to MLG virtue signal executive order

Truth or Consequences, NM – In response to Lujan Grisham’s latest executive order, House Republican Caucus Chair Rebecca Dow (T or C) has issued the following statement:

“Low polls and Democrat fear mongering have led to an onslaught of virtue signaling that Lujan Grisham couldn’t avoid, and instead she is playing a shell game with this latest Executive Order regarding abortions that are already legal in our state,” said House Republican Caucus Chair Rebecca Dow (T or C). “New Mexicans are working tirelessly to afford gasoline just to get to their jobs and cover the ever-increasing cost of living that Lujan Grisham’s policies have directly impacted. Yet, this Governor, instead of making decisions that empower working families to succeed in her failed economy, has chosen to waive a virtue signal about reproductive health in a state that already has essentially no limitations on elective abortions.”
