

Administrative Office of the Courts

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

July 8, 2022

Judicial Compensation Commission Meets July 14

SANTA FE – The New Mexico Judicial Compensation Commission will meet Thursday, July 14, to consider recommendations to the 2023 Legislature for a possible judicial salary increase.

TIME: 10:10 a.m.

DATE: Thursday, July 14.

PLACE: Live streamed on the New Mexico Courts YouTube channel.

Click here for the July 14 meeting agenda.

The independent six-member commission is required by state law to annually recommend a judicial pay plan to the Legislative Finance Committee and the Department of Finance and Administration. Commission members will remotely participate in the online meeting through a video conferencing platform.

The commission is chaired by Camille Carey, dean of the University of New Mexico School of Law. Other members are Rep. Daymon Ely, an Albuquerque attorney; Adam Flores, an Albuquerque attorney; Deborah Seligman, an Albuquerque attorney; Patrick Ortiz, a Santa Fe attorney, and Carolyn Wolf, a Santa Fe lawyer and president of the State Bar of New Mexico.

The commission's 2021 report is available online.

###

Contact: Beth Wojahn
Administrative Office of the Courts
505-469-5415
bwojah@nmcourts.gov

JUDICIAL COMPENSATION COMMISSION

AGENDA

July 14, 2022

10:10 a.m.

Virtual Meeting via Zoom

Meeting livestreamed for the public on the New Mexico Courts YouTube channel

1. Welcome and introductions (Chair, Dean Camille Carey)
2. Report on legislative action during the 2022 regular legislative session (Arthur Pepin)
3. Proposed Statutory Proposals regarding judicial compensation (Arthur Pepin).
4. Data considerations submitted for 2022 Report Commission recommendations, discuss possible recommendation to achieve district court salary judge of $185,000 (Arthur Pepin).
5. Discuss recommendations; schedule draft and final report deadlines; decide if additional meeting is required (Commission Members).
6. Adjourn (Chair Carey)