New Mexico School Boards Association Officers Participate in Western Region Meeting in North Dakota

NMSBA's State Officers traveled to Fargo, North Dakota September 8-11, 2022 to attend the Annual nine-state Western Region Meeting which includes New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota and Montana.

The delegation, led by State President Marvyn Jaramillo (Mesa Vista), participated in a strategic planning session focused on improving public education in the Western Region; heard state reports on education opportunities and challenges in the nine-state region; and participated in the Western Region Business Meeting where officers and committee representatives were elected to the National School Boards Association for the coming year.

We are extremely pleased to announce NMSBA President Marvyn Jaramillo was elected to a three-year term as the Western Region Representative on the National School Boards Association Board of Directors. New Mexico has not held this seat for almost 15 years. In addition, NMSBA Past President Pauline Jaramillo (Socorro) was elected to continue as the Western Region Representative Alternate on the National Nominations Committee.

The New Mexico delegation included Marvyn Jaramillo (Mesa Vista) NMSBA President; Dymorie Maker (Lovington) NMSBA President-Elect; Christine Ludi (West Las Vegas) NMSBA Vice President; Terry O'Brain (Hobbs) NMSBA Secretary-Treasurer; Pauline Jaramillo (Socorro) NMSBA Past President; and Joe Guillen, NMSBA Executive Director.
